

A computer controlled molecular telescope / Nan scope that can insert and impregnate new DNA will consequently rebuild the cell.

a Computer controlled dissection will allow probability of success for great accomplishments as opposed to radiation and poison therapy.

to grow the cell and incubate the compound salt or protein will assist the process. sugar may be a alternative to both of these.

copyright crioner.com

