

1699 light turbo focused energy is a small reflected system of cycles in the case that one or only a few light emitters generate a stronger system of a source of solar energy in amplification by reflection and the profit of energy is greater than the source copyright © 2019 christopher gabriel brown patent abstract utility patent christopher g brown 3715