

765 public-ally supported short network stations instead of blasting communications from far above why not make communication a small subscription network like the way it used to be in the pay phone days we could have mobile networks everywhere someone wanted a connection Copyright © 2016 Christopher G Brown