

769 chemical balance relation goal is the chance to achieve the proper chemicals in the brain or an organ to make it work better and function regulatory like while not poisoning the other organs in relation to the technique of ingestion or intake of the medicine by finding all the complex differences in any reaction to the medicine and make a indirect correction of the known changes Copyright © 2016 Christopher G Brown