

Why things are mystical is because life is just different for different people. To describe why the way my nephew paints isn't wrong is the goal. Well he's four years old right now and I don't paint quite like him just similar. So what I was thinking was taking him to the High Museum of Art downtown and I was thinking that I'm going to have to do a lot of describing and use big words sort of. The essence of what I'm getting at is that there are different ways to paint. There are and will always be different ways to use paint. I think we will have fun... just hope things go well.
