934 how would anyone control artificial intelligence so that it is not a ready made corruption of control meaning intelligence in itself is uncontrollable via the old proverb of apple of knowledge and history personal opinion of the fight of any intelligence that is super-synthetic and binomial incorrect in assessment of morality and negative reality ai should be a banned practice and modified into a super-situational programmable software Copyright © 2016 Christopher G Brown