

Study of Flaws

next

256 SSL and a checksum of Packet Flaws

the need to place 256 secure socket layers into place with a packet flaw prerequisite. plainly a packet is requested from the server. the server sends a packet first with the information backwards with weight and scale then loads the data inside the first packet continuing packets.