

reading and writing using convex and concave lenses to build a blu-ray or archival disc 120mm media inside a glass or carbonate jewel case with spectrum magnified reading points with the intent of making it secure and dust free while being redundant and replaceable with the intent not confuse it and a 3.5 inch hard drive with a similar yet less expensive case for data writes and rewrites such as to compare it with more expensive solid state drive for data storage. copyright crioner.com

Fixed Jewel Case Drive