

1271 secure private badges for using signatures in a secure work place called doors are a important secure private office operating system that is office inside an office that works with firewalls and fences for people who operate in tiers and teams to work on productive security means that are sensitive and need doors and keys on a professional logged and improved structure for government military private offices and a means to identify issues that people create copyright © patent pending 2012-2018 christopher gabriel brown