

EXIT Format Expressions

the intent to share all types of data or miscellaneous file types and the intent to not share or make program compatible is an interoperability challenge and program miss interpretation of sorts. my idea is a strict intersection of two formats to not share files or to share files with an easy add in Plainly stating that the files must or must not be shared. either for security or profit mobility.

